Rules – Guidelines – Event Information

Failure to comply with the following may result in the loss of participation privilege and possibly affect future participation. Please provide this information with all participants in your unit. Event staff and volunteers will assist with you the check-in process and will be stationed along the parade route to provide further assistance.

Participation Rules

- Approved registrations and unit line up positions are absolutely non-transferable to other individuals or organizations
- Event staff or volunteers reserve the right to change the placement of your unit if necessary
- All performances must be conducted while moving in effort to maintain a steady momentum
- Pets are strictly prohibited on the festival grounds. This includes check-in area, on parade floats and/or vehicles participating in the parade
- All vehicles and towed units must be in good working condition
- Drivers are responsible for maintaining safe distance from preceding and following units
- Applicant ensures that all children in parade unit will be adequately supervised throughout entire duration of the parade
- Alcoholic beverage use and possession is strictly prohibited during the parade

Novelty Distribution Rules

Items may be distributed at the sole discretion of SPFHF Staff and SPFHF Parade Coordinator. Pens, pencils and toy balls are not allowed. All other items are strictly prohibited without prior approval. Request for distribution of items not listed can be submitted in the provided area of the registration form.

- Additional distribution fee must be paid
- All items must be handed not thrown for safety purposes
- All novelties must be HANDED out NOT THROWN
- Candy must be wrapped
- Novelty distribution permits will be provided at check-in. Units distributing without the permit will be required to surrender items
- SPFHF reserves the right to inspect all intended items to distribute

Guidelines

Parade unit design may include vibrant colored decorations, music, organization signage and/or participants dressed in costume. The following guidelines are strongly encouraged:

- Parade units are encouraged to be decorated with the Cinco de Mayo theme, representing the Hispanic/Latino culture or the West Side community
- Parade units are encouraged the usage of live or recorded music. Please indicate on registration as this will assist with placement in the parade.
- Parade units are encouraged to decorate with recycled materials

Insurance

A current Certificate of Insurance covering the operation of your unit must be received by the Saint Paul Festival & Heritage Foundation office no later than April 24, 2019. This certificate must have the name of your organization or registration number on it.

Comprehensive General Liability (CGL) is required of all parade units.

- This must be a Certificate of Insurance. We do not accept copies of policies, cards, etc. Your insurance company is very familiar with issuing certificates, so please ask them to create a certificate for this event.
- The CGL must be at or exceed $1,000,000 covering bodily injury, personal injury, and property damage.
- The Saint Paul Festival and Heritage Foundation must be named as additional insured on the certificate. (Please do NOT use SPFHF)
- The date on the certificate must be through May 2, 2020.
